

Bikeathon Privacy Policy

This privacy policy sets out how the Bikeathon organisation uses and protects any information that you give the Bikeathon organisation when you use this website.

The Bikeathon organisation is committed to ensuring that your privacy is protected. Should we ask you to provide certain information by which you can be identified when using this web site, you can be assured that it will only be used in accordance with this privacy statement.

The Bikeathon organisation may change this policy from time to time by updating this page. You should check this page from time to time to ensure that you are happy with any changes. This policy is effective from 1st January 2008.

What we collect

We may collect the following information:

- name and title
- contact information including postal address, telephone number and email address
- age, if you are under 16 years old
- preferences relevant to your entry in a Bikeathon event

What we do with the information we gather

We require this information to understand your needs and provide you with a better service, and in particular for the following reasons:

- to process your entry for a Bikeathon event
- to send you information and items relevant to the event you have entered
- to notify you of future Bikeathon events we think you may be interested in. If you prefer not to receive such information, you can opt out via your entry form or on-line registration.

Information Security

We are committed to ensuring that your information is secure. In order to prevent unauthorised access or disclosure we have put in place suitable physical, electronic and managerial procedures to safeguard and secure the information we collect online.

Links to other websites

Our website may contain links to enable you to visit other websites of interest easily. However, once you have used these links to leave our site, you should note that we do not have any control over that other website. Therefore, we cannot be responsible for the protection and privacy of any information which you provide whilst visiting such sites and such sites are not governed by this privacy statement. You should exercise caution and look at the privacy statement applicable to the website in question.

Controlling your personal information

You may choose to restrict the collection or use of your personal information in the following ways:

- whenever you are asked to fill in a form on the website, look for the box that you can click to indicate that you do not want the information to be used by anybody for direct marketing purposes
- if you have previously agreed to us using your personal information for direct marketing purposes, you may change your mind at any time by writing to or emailing us at bob@macclesfieldbikeathon.co.uk

We will not sell, distribute or lease your personal information to third parties unless we have your permission or are required by law to do so.

You may request details of personal information which we hold about you under the Data Protection Act 1998. A small fee will be payable. If you would like a copy of the information held on you please write to Bikeathon, 51 Sunderland St, Macclesfield, Cheshire, SK11 6HN.

If you believe that any information we are holding on you is incorrect or incomplete, please write to or email us as soon as possible, and we will promptly correct any information found to be incorrect.
